I have driven this car for over 150 miles and it drives faultlessly with no squeaks or rattles whatsoever and everything works as it should. The bodywork and interior are almost as new, this is an excellent example you can see straight away that it has been well looked after. The car is MOT tested until August 6th 2014 and there are no advisory's on the mot certificate it is also taxed until the end of January 2014
